disunion. To give them lesson of unity, one day he told his sons to bring him a bundle of sticks. When they had done so, he placed the bundle of sticks into the hands of each and ordered them to break it into pieces. They tried with all their strength, and were not able to do it. He next opened the bundle, took the sticks separately, one by one, and again put them into his sons' hands, upon which they broke them easily. He then addressed them "My sons, if you are of one mind, and unite to assist each other, you will not be defeated by the enemies.

Once, I got up early at morning,

Chirping birds in my garden.

I could not stop visiting my garden, During the golden hours of morning.

I was amazed to see the magic flowers, And beauty of dew all over showers.

I was glad to look flowers grow,

That brought in my life more glow.

I am a nature lover,

Like to have more greenery forever.
